

JOHN A. LACKO / SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE

Go in peace, to love and serve the Lord

Bishop Paul V. Donovan offers his last official public Mass as head of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Kalamazoo Sunday at St. Augustine Cathedral. Donovan, 70, is retiring after 23 years as head of the diocese, which serves about 104,000 Catholics in nine counties. A reception for Donovan was held after the Mass.

Donovan's successor, the Most Rev. Alfred John Markiewicz of Rockville Center in New York, will be installed Jan. 31.
